SUBSTANCE ABUSE , MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT & EMPLOYMENT PROVIDERS NEEDED

Substance abuse and mental health treatment is a tool that helps U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Officers supervise or monitor offenders in the community. It includes among others, counseling and detoxification. These services are provided to persons who abuse illegal/prescription drugs, or alcohol. Mental Health Treatment Services are also needed for offenders with certain mental health conditions.

These individuals are either on pretrial, probation, parole, mandatory release or supervised release. Treatment is ordered by the U.S. District Court or by the U.S. Parole Commission as a condition of releasing these persons to the community.

The Chief U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Officer for Puerto Rico intends to contract Mental Health, substance abuse and/or sex offender treatment, as well as job placement services for federal defendants and offenders.

REQUIRED SERVICES MAY INCLUDE:

- Counseling & Psychotherapy
- Psychiatric Services
- Outpatient & inpatient detoxification
- Medication
- Short & long term residential placement
- Specific sex offender evaluation & treatment

Interested treatment providers must solicit a Request for Proposal (RFP) to:
